

Fraser Hughes

Associate

Location

CAYMAN ISLANDS

Contact Details

Tel: +1 (345) 814 7391

fraser.hughes@conyersdill.com

Practice Expertise

- Litigation & Restructuring

Fraser Hughes is an attorney in the Litigation department in the Cayman Islands office of Conyers Dill & Pearman. Fraser joined Conyers in 2007.

Fraser is well versed in all aspects of commercial litigation and has particular expertise in fraud, accounting, insolvency and mutual fund-related litigation. Prior to joining Conyers Dill & Pearman, Fraser was a distinguished member of the Ontario bar and has extensive trial experience, appearing as counsel in numerous, high profile Canadian insolvency and restructuring matters, including representing a key defendant in a civil conspiracy matter that turned into one of the longest civil trials in Canadian history.

Professional Background

- Litigation lawyer, Bennett Jones LLP, Toronto

Education

- Trent University, B.A.
- University of London, LLB
- Queen's University, J.D

Bar Admissions

- Ontario, 2000 (not currently practising)
- Cayman Islands, Attorney-at-Law, 2007

Language

- French