HONG KONG

The Hong Kong office was opened in Exchange Square in September 1985. As Hong Kong remains a vibrant economic and geographic hub for East Asia, our Hong Kong office is readily accessible to clients throughout the ASEAN region and from locations such as People's Republic of China, Japan and Korea. The main language spoken is English, however, our staff also speak Mandarin, Cantonese, Japanese and Spanish.

REAL TIME GLOBAL ADVICE

From Hong Kong we provide a seamless, real-time, global service through links with our international offices - something of increasing importance to clients conducting multi-jurisdictional transactions.

When necessary, instructions received in Hong Kong can be passed on to the appropriate jurisdiction in a different time zone for immediate action on what is effectively the same business day. This means we can often avoid costly delays to our clients by giving advice before the morning of the next business day in Hong Kong.

Our Hong Kong office specialises in:

- Private equity and joint ventures
- Public offerings of shares and securities of offshore companies listed on:
